The Court made the following :

ORAL JUDGMENT:

(per The Honourable Sri Devinder Gupta, the Chief Justice)

None for the appellant.

The Appeal is against the order passed by the learned Single Judge dismissing the Writ Petition. The appellant, in the Writ Petition, questioned the action of the respondents in initiating proceedings to acquire the property without notice to the appellant. Learned Single Judge found that the notice as envisaged under Section 9 (1) of the Land Acquisition Act had been duly served, and, was even affixed on the spot, whereafter, enquiry was conducted and Award was passed fixing the compensation. In this view of the matter, we do not find any ground to interfere with the order passed by the learned Single Judge dismissing the Writ Petition.

There is hardly any merit in the Appeal. The Appeal, therefore, is dismissed. No costs.
